Our people

Spotlight on ... Ivy Anderson-Lawrence

Ivy joined the Church in 1984 from Boston Road Baptist Church, after moving to Norbury. Her family became active members of the Fellowship, with her children, Jacqueline and Audley, joining Sunday School and Girls' and Boys' Brigade. Since then her grandchildren have gone through, and are going to, Sunday School, so "the Church continues to support" her family.

Ivy says: "I see Norbury as an extension of my own family and have developed many wonderful relationships over the years here. I feel a sense of fellowship and am able to relax and enjoy learning about the love of God in a welcoming environment". As a retired nurse she has volunteered at times to teach First Aid, when the Girls' and Boys' Brigade were active. She is "always interested in what the young people of our church do" as she believes that they are our future.

Now retired, Ivy tends to spend the winter months away in her holiday home in Jamaica and attends a church out there call Ebenezer Baptist Church. She says: "I tell them all about Norbury when I am there", and looks forward to coming back to Norbury in the spring when she returns to England to see her family. She loves talking to people and joining in church activities. She says that she sees her "role in life now as a prayerful one". She prays for her "home family and church family" and likes to attend prayer meetings both at Norbury and at Ebenezer in Jamaica.
